

How is it that Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, and yet is allowed to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election?

Responsive local media are essential if democracy is to flourish. This situation demonstrates clearly that consolidating media control in the hands of a few large corporations is not in America's best interest.

Thank you.